

CHICATA SUMMER SOCIAL 2009

UNDER MILK WOOD

Written by Dylan Thomas

Directed by Paul S. Holmquist

Presented by Caffeine Theatre

Dear CHICATA Members and Friends,

Let's Get Together to see Dylan Thomas' dark, but funny play about the dreams and waking lives of a fictional Welsh town. An iconic favorite since it was first broadcast as a radio play in 1954, the play's 47 quirky characters bring to life their inner longings bubbling beneath the surface of the town's daily life, endearing us to humanity's bawdy and magnificent possibilities. Paul S. Holmquist directs this classic but utterly relevant play with an intimate and physically intense ensemble of Chicago theater veterans and emerging talent.

Thursday, August 27, 2009 at 7:30 pm at Storefront Theater
(66 E Randolph, Chicago)

We'll meet for dinner before the play at Berghoff
(17 W Adams Street) at 5:45 pm

Please RSVP by August 20 to Erika Kugler (erikakugler@sbcglobal.net).

Tickets are $20; $18 Seniors; $16 students. You can purchase them online, over the phone or on site. Please visit www.dcatheater.org for more information.
